Transport crime, and particularly crime in road freight transport, is a serious and growing problem with an important economic impact. Beside an repressive approach, we need to focus on the prevention of cargo theft through improving the safety of truck parking areas. The Belgian Minister of Home Affairs places the prevention of cargo theft high on the European agenda with the subscription of a Council Resolution. By doing so, the Minister takes the lead for reaching an agreement on one security model for truck parking areas among the EU member states.
