

Michael Nielsen

POSITION: Responsible for the International Road Transport Union's Permanent Delegation to the EU

ORGANISATION: International Road Transport Union (IRU)

LABEL ACTIVITY: Member of the Advisory Board

Michael Nielsen is responsible for the International Road Transport Union's Permanent Delegation to the EU. He has much experience in International R&D, commercial and policy building activities. Before joining the IRU he was Director at ERTICO ITS Europe and has in the past worked as International Sales Director at Traffic Supervision Systems and for the Brussels based Nordic Transport Development as well as for the University of Aalborg.

Michael Nielsen will be on the panel discussion on Day 2 of the conference.

Michael will touch on the responsibility the State, and thus the Government, has in creating enough secure truck parking areas to meet the demand, to safeguard the citizens of the EU, including the security of commercial drivers, to widely publicise the location, security and service level of truck parking areas (TPA) in cooperation with truck parking area owners and managers.

He will further explain the role that the IRU has had in the past in relation to TPAs and how the IRU in cooperation with ITF and other stakeholders will continue to work towards combating road freight crime.
