

José Montull

POSITION: Lieutenant Colonel

ORGANISATION: Office central de lutte contre la délinquance itinérante (OCLDI) French Gendarmerie

OCLDI is an interagency law enforcement unit in charge of fighting itinerant crime. In this particular field, this agency centralizes criminal intelligence, coordinates the investigations at a national level, investigates the most difficult cases and ensures international cooperation.

José Montull will be presenting the following at the conference:

After a very quick overview of the situation of cargo crime in France, there will be a description of the criminal groups involved and the difficulties experienced by law enforcement. The impact of secured parking areas in terms of prevention of cargo crime will be discussed as a conclusion.