

Peter van den Ende

POSITION: Director Public Private Foundation CrimiNee! / Police Commissioner

ORGANISATION: Police Force Netherlands

Peter has been working in the field of public private cooperation for crime control for seven years. He and his team developed three public-private programs. in the Brainport region Eindhoven Secure parking, safe and secure business parks and cities. The Secure Lane project has about 20 public-private partners for the concept of safe parking in the corridor Venlo - Eindhoven - Rotterdam.

He is also chairman of the Strategic Policy Group of the Council of Chief Constables with the public-private partnership portfolio.

Peter will be presenting the following at the conference:

- Information-sent security chain, aimed at the prevention of chains- and system failure.
- Of reactive to proactively (Stop Crime!).
- Cooperation between public and private partners.
- Organise collective (regionally) of security by private public partners.
- The cameras on the parking places are connected to the business parks.
- Live camera surveillance from Regional Monitor Room
- Direct connecting and transfer to the control rooms of Police, Fire department and ambulance.