

Thorsten Neumann

POSITION: Chairman TAPA EMEA
Global Supply Chain Security Lead &
Head of Security CEMEA (Nokia)

ORGANISATION: TAPA EMEA
Nokia GmbH

Thorsten Neumann is responsible for all Loss Prevention & Security activities in support of protecting Nokia's People and Assets within the CEMEA & INDIA region.

For Nokia's Supply Chain Thorsten is in charge of all Loss Prevention & Security activities in support of Nokia's entire portfolio. In this role, he is responsible for the development of an integrated strategy, processes, and systems in support of Nokia's end-to-end Supply Chain model and concept globally.

Thorsten joined Nokia in 2008. Before he joined Nokia he worked for other Global Manufacturing companies within the High tech Industry.

Thorsten received his Bachelor's degree in Automation technology from Flensburg University in 1996. Thorsten held's a Green Belt Certification in the Digital Six Sigma Program and an ISMA Leadership Certification from Georgetown University Washington / USA. He is a member of the TAPA EMEA & WWC Board since 2003 and actually the Chairman of TAPA EMEA since 2006.

Thorsten Neumann will be presenting the following at the conference:

Thorsten will touch on and share the TAPA EMEA activities related to ensure a standardised approach for secured parking places. The TAPA EMEA parking security requirements (PSR) were developed by shippers, logistics & trucking companies and secured parking place owners while the SETPOS project and constantly developed for the last 3 years also within the label project. He will share information on recent incidents and give a general overview on the crime situation in the EU plus an overview on TAPA as organization, their standards and services plus the benefit to join TAPA EMEA and start the fight against criminals attacking our goods whilst in transit.